

Who's the Fairest of Them
All?

Fair adj. 1. Light in coloring; not dark or
2. Pleasing to the eye; beautiful; comely. imperfection; a fair name. 4. Having no hall, bright; sunny. 5. Showing no partiality.
cording to rules, principles, etc.; legitimately open to attack: He is fair game. 8. M. acceptable; passably good or large: a fair ing; a fair possibility. 10. Apparently good tually false: fair promises 11. Gracious fair words 12. Open; unobstructed: a fair trimmed; even; regular: said of timbers Easily legible; distinct: fair handwriting falling or remaining in the area bounded foul: fair ball, fair territory play fair.

Passions of the Soul

Stories we tell ourselves

Rene Lynch • Michelle Muhlbaum • Tabitha Vevers • Kathleen Bitetti

Passions of the Soul

Stories we tell ourselves

Kathleen Bitetti • Rene Lynch
Michelle Muhlbaum • Tabitha Vevers

February 13–March 22, 2012

Gallery Reception: Thursday, February 16, 5–7 p.m.

Snow Date: February 23

617-521-2268

M–F 10–4:30

Closed: February 20, March 5–9

4th floor, Main College Building

B. Lynch, Interim Director

www.simmons.edu/trustman images (details), L–R: Lynch, Alice; Muhlbaum, The Queen and her Prince who was made from precious stones; Vevers, EDEN Amoebayouba at Dusk; Bitetti, Who's the Fairest of Them All?

Vevers image courtesy of Clark Gallery, other images courtesy of the artists.

Trustman Art Gallery
Simmons College
300 The Fenway
Boston, MA 02115