

Artists Health Care Forum

Do you have health insurance? How do you pay for your hospital bills and prescriptions? Do you have coverage for a chronic illness? The Artists Health Care Task Force invites your testimony on the issue of Health Care Reform. The Task Force will gather testimony by artists from all disciplines and will forward it to Congress for inclusion in the Health Care Reform debate. Three panel discussions have been scheduled:

Performing Arts Monday, March 28

The first panel focuses on the health care needs of performing artists and will take place at the Tremont House, 275 Tremont Street, Boston, Monday, March 28, from 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Visual Arts Wednesday, March 30

Visual artists are invited to join the discussion at the Cyclorama, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston, Wednesday, March 30, from 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Literary Arts Saturday, April 2

This panel discussion for writers will take place at First Expressions gallery, 81 Arlington Street, Boston, Saturday, April 2, from 11 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

Panelists

Robin Cuddy, M.D.
Jim O'Connell, M.D.
Kathleen Bitetti
Joel Watson

Bruce P. Rossley, Moderator

Boston Health Care for the Homeless
Boston Health Care for the Homeless
The Artists Foundation
Massachusetts Coordinator for the National Health Care Campaign
Mayor's Office of the Arts and Humanities

Please limit oral testimony to 5 minutes and plan to have your testimony typed for submission to the Task Force. For more information and to RSVP, please call The Artists Foundation, 227-2787

Artists Foundation

Mayor's Office of the Arts and Humanities

BOSTON
HEALTH
CARE for the
HOMELESS
PROGRAM

